

Photos: Denver's top eleven hidden tourism gems

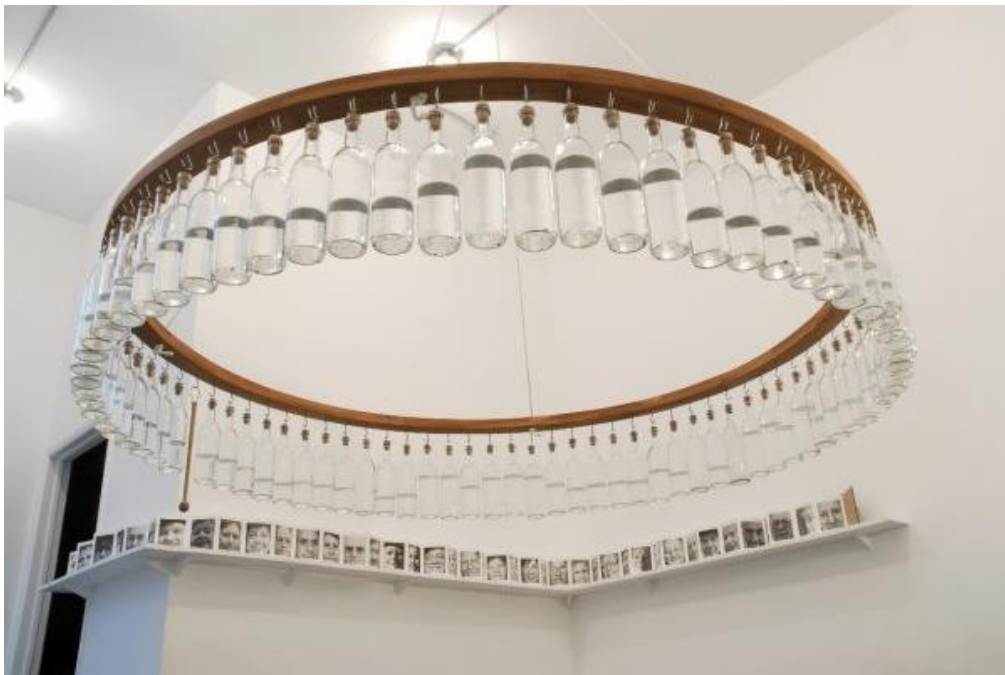

BY MICHAEL ROBERTS

JULY 22, 2013

Last month, we shared a post about Denver's top twelve tourist attractions based on attendance, as calculated by Visit Denver.

But what about those places that are well worth checking out but aren't nearly as well known as Red Rocks and the 16th Street Mall? Visit Denver's Denver.org site features a top-eleven list (because ten just weren't enough) of what it describes as "hidden gems." Look below to see its picks, complete with photos, contact info and Visit Denver text.

Number 11:

Dikeou Collection 1615 California Street, Suite 515 Denver, CO 80202 303 623-3001 There's nowhere else you're going to see a pair of inflatable, 16-foot-tall rubber bunnies, right? One of the Mile High City's most fascinating art locales, The Dikeou Collection is a private collection of contemporary art, with photography, drawings, sculptures, and installations by more than 25 artists from around the world. Free and open to the public, Wednesdays, Thursdays and Fridays, 11 a.m. to 5 p.m. or by appointment.