See another view of Devon Dikeou's retrospective exhibition Mid-Career Smear beyond the main display in the Dikeou Collection's downtown high-rise gallery when a second arm of the show pops up for one afternoon at the Dikeou Annex, located inside the former Jerry's Record Exchange shop on East Colfax. Brand-new works will mingle with some of Dikeou's earliest ones, adding depth to the full show, curated by Cortney Lane Stell of Black Cube.
