Archive Live: Unpacking the Archives of Devon Dikeou

Dikeou Collection, 1615 California Street, Suite 515

Thursday, September 8, 6 to 8 p.m.

Free

The special guest tonight a Dikeou Collections is none other than Josh T. Franco, the head of collecting at the Smithsonian's Archives of American Art, who believes in the importance of collecting research materials by artists in order to trace and preserve their processes over time. As an artist and meticulous archival collector, Devon Dikeou fits the bill for his talk on the subject, and will offer plenty of fodder collected over twenty years or more for unpacking her career to an audience.
